INTRODUCTION

THE POWER OF THE GOSPEL IN BUSINESSES: A TESTIMONY AND A CALLING

In 2018, the Lord sent me on a mission trip to the Eastern Cape, where I met one of the most extraordinary people a man known as "Ds Kort Broek Cobus." Wearing his signature black "Pep Stores" short pants (they say he wears two in winter), he is a man with an unshakable passion for the Gospel. It was here that I discovered a new dimension of ministry the power of God's Word in the workplace.

Brother "Ds Kort Broek Cobus." sent me with Gerald to a shopping mall, where I joined him in sharing the Good News. This man needed no pulpit or microphone he walked in with courage, sharing his faith with strangers. He prayed for people in need and proclaimed Jesus Christ to anyone willing to listen. In the canteen of a major retail store, we spoke about Jesus Christ crucified, and I saw people's eyes open to the truth of the Gospel.

Later, I joined them in visiting factories and businesses where both workers and managers set aside time for prayer and the Word of God. At a factory during a shift change, they stopped the entire operation for a Wednesday service! One of the employees had already been trained as a pastor and delivered a powerful message from the book of John. This was not just a church service it was proof that God's Word is alive and active in the workplace.

On Friday morning, before sunrise, I found myself among a group of workers at a steel factory, singing praise songs in unity. It reminded me of:

"So continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they ate their food with gladness and simplicity of heart, praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily those who were being saved."

Acts 2:46-47 (NKJV)

A Zimbabwean evangelist brought a message of hope, and within an hour, hearts were strengthened and souls refreshed. After the service, the owner invited us for coffee and shared his testimony there was a visible change in his business. Employees no longer resigned out of frustration; instead, they worked together as brothers in Christ. Union conflicts and internal struggles were replaced by a new culture of respect and cooperation. This is the power of the Gospel!

With renewed passion, I returned home and started the same ministry in Swakopmund. At several businesses, we met weekly for a short Scripture reading and prayer. When COVID-19 hit in 2020 and fear overwhelmed the world, we prayed together in the last week before the lockdown. Six months later, when we gathered again, there was an incredible testimony no one had been retrenched!

I share this story with you because it is proof that God's Word is not limited to a church building. It is alive, moving, and transforming lives wherever it is proclaimed. There is a place for you to step into a business, ask for permission, and set aside time for a short Scripture reading and prayer. Choose a specific day and time each week to build a rhythm. Be faithful!

"Then He said to them, 'The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few; therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.'"

Luke 10:2 (NKJV)

The harvest is great, but the workers are few. Are you willing to be an instrument in God's hand? Step out in faith. God is looking for faithful men and women who will stand for His name and His mission!

May the Lord bless you richly in this ministry.

"And the Angel of the Lord appeared to him, and said to him, 'The Lord is with you, you mighty man of valor!'"

Judges 6:12 (NKJV)

WARNING

SEE THIS GUIDE AS JUST THAT – A GUIDE

I want to encourage you to see this guide as just that a guide. The responsibility is on you and your evangelism team to pray, to set yourselves apart, and to seek the face of the Lord. Walking in with a plan is good here it is. But walking in with a plan led by the Holy Spirit is the beginning of revival!

Take a few days and start praying for workers, for the harvest, and for God's will in this matter. You can fast for a day or three and make this a real step of faith.

"So he who had received five talents came and brought five other talents, saying, 'Lord, you delivered to me five talents; look, I have gained five more talents besides them.' His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you were faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.'"

Matthew 25:20-21 (NKJV)

Your responsibility is towards the Lord, not towards man. God rewards the labourer.

The Scriptures I use here are just that a guideline. There is space on every page for you to write more, to add more, and to expand on it. You can and should develop your own Scriptures.

ADVICE

As an evangelist, I want to encourage you to do two very important things before you go out (besides your daily quiet time and prayer with the Lord).

First, pray the Lord's Prayer in Matthew 6.

After you have prayed that, then pray Ephesians 6:10-18:

"Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.

Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having girded your waist with truth, having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; above all, taking the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one.

And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God; praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, being watchful to this end with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints and for me, that utterance may be given to me, that I may open my mouth boldly to make known the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak."

Ephesians 6:10-20 (NKJV)

You may use this manual freely, but I ask that whenever you go out to minister each morning, please mention my name before the Lord so that He may also use me powerfully.

"Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, being watchful to this end with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints and for me, that utterance may be given to me, that I may open my mouth boldly to make known the mystery of the gospel."

Ephesians 6:18-19 (NKJV)

STRATEGY

"If you fail to plan you plan to fail - Benjamin Franklin"

Here is a detailed strategy that you can use to prepare and organise street evangelists to visit businesses and share a short Bible verse and prayer in just five minutes. This plan combines practical steps, communication tips, and follow-up methods to ensure that the approach is respectful, relevant, and impactful.

The responsibility lies with you and your evangelism team to pray, set time apart, and seek the face of the Lord. Having a plan is a great start, and here it is. Stepping in with a plan led by the Holy Spirit is the beginning of revival!

1. Goal and Vision

Goal:

- To bring short spiritual inspiration to businesses through a brief biblical message and prayer.
- To encourage a sense of blessing and unity in the workplace.
- To establish continuity through the 30-week Prayer Guide, motivating employees to apply the weekly message.

Vision:

- Businesses and their staff experience a positive, supportive work environment where spiritual inspiration goes hand in hand with professional growth.
- Evangelists build trusting relationships through consistent, insightful messages that convey relevant biblical truths.

2. Preparation and Training of Evangelists

Spiritual and Practical Training

- Scripture Study and Prayer: Ensure that every evangelist studies the 30-week Prayer Guide thoroughly and is familiar with each week's message and prayer focus.
- Personal Consecration: It is vital that each evangelist sets themselves apart, fasts, and prays to follow the leading of the Lord. There are places you do not enter (e.g., a bar or a brothel is not a place for an evangelist to work).
- Role-Playing and Scripture Training: Practice a standard greeting and conversation strategy in group sessions. This helps build confidence and ensures a natural delivery of the message.
- Cultural and Professional Sensitivity: Evangelists should always share the message in a respectful, non-intrusive manner.

Materials and Aids

- Printed Material: Prepare simple brochures or cards explaining who you are, your purpose, and the details of the 30-week program.

- Visual Aids: If possible, use visual support (e.g., a foldable chart of weekly themes) to provide a quick overview of the program.

3. Identifying and Approaching Businesses

Target Businesses

- Research: Compile a list of businesses in the area, especially those that show community involvement or employee well-being.
- Prioritisation: Focus on businesses based on size, location, and potential openness to spiritual encouragement.

Contact Strategy

- Pre-contact: If possible, call or email the business's reception or HR department to briefly explain your purpose and schedule a visit. This increases the likelihood of a positive reception.
- Direct Visit: If pre-contact is difficult, evangelists can approach businesses directly. Start at the reception or with individuals responsible for employee well-being or internal communication.

4. The Conversation Script (Example)

1. Greeting and Introduction:

- "Good morning/afternoon, my name is [Your Name] from [Organisation Name]. We have developed a program aimed at blessing businesses and promoting unity through a short biblical inspiration and prayer."

2. Request for Time:

- "May I have just 5 minutes of your time to share a brief message and say a prayer focusing on [e.g., protection, wisdom, or unity]?"

3. Message and Prayer:

- Use the current week's theme from the 30-week Prayer Guide (e.g., Week 1: Psalm 91 - God's protection).
- Read the Bible verse aloud, share a short reflection, and invite the staff to briefly share their thoughts.
- Close with a prayer specifically addressing the business's needs (e.g., for physical, emotional, and spiritual protection).

4. Closing:

- "Thank you for your time and openness. We hope this inspiration will be a blessing to your business. If you are interested, we can schedule a follow-up visit or provide more information about our program."

5. Execution and Time Management

A. Conversation Duration:

- Keep each session between 5-10 minutes to avoid disrupting the business schedule.
- Clearly define a time frame for each business to ensure evangelists do not stay too long, especially during busy hours.

B. Calendar and Rotation:

- Develop a route map and divide the area into sectors. Assign specific evangelists to each sector.

- Organise a weekly schedule to ensure businesses are visited regularly but not too frequently.

6. Follow-Up and Evaluation

A. Record-Keeping and Feedback:

- Maintain a simple database or list to track each visit: date, business name, contact person, response, and any follow-up actions.
- Gather feedback from businesses ask if the message and prayer added value to their work environment.

B. Adjusting the Program:

- Use feedback to refine messages or approaches. If certain themes or types of prayers resonate more, emphasise them further.
- Evaluate progress monthly and discuss improvements in team meetings.

7. Practical Tips and Best Practices

Be Honest and Open:

- Let businesses know your program is meant to bless, not to impose or be intrusive.

Respect the Business Environment:

- Tailor your message to the business context. If they work in a high-paced or stressful environment, keep your message short and powerful.

Personal Connection:

- Share your personal experience or testimony if relevant, as this can create a human connection.

Follow Up with Gratitude:

- Send a brief thank-you note or email after each visit to show appreciation for their time and openness. This builds trust and reinforces the message.

Final Encouragement

This strategic plan provides evangelists with a clear framework to approach businesses in a respectful and effective manner. With thorough preparation, confident communication, and consistent follow-up, you can positively impact both workplaces and the lives of those within them.

Wishing you great success with your program! God's richest blessings upon you!

Remember, this is the Great Commission directly from Jesus. It is a great task with even greater blessings!

"And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, 'All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.' Amen."
Matthew 28:18-20 (NKJV)

GUIDE

30-WEEK PRAYER GUIDE FOR BUSINESS CHAMBER EVANGELISTS

(Each session lasts 5-30 minutes)

How to Use This Guide

1. Start with a short welcome and take a moment to connect with each other.
2. Read the Scripture passage for the week out loud.
3. Briefly discuss the reflection question, either as a group or individually.
4. Pray together, focusing on the prayer theme for the week.
5. Encourage participants to think about and apply the verse throughout the week.

WEEK 1: GOD'S PROTECTION IN OUR DAILY LIVES

Scripture:

"He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, 'He is my refuge and my fortress; My God, in Him I will trust.' Surely He shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the perilous pestilence. He shall cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you shall take refuge; His truth shall be your shield and buckler. You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, nor of the arrow that flies by day, nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday. A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; but it shall not come near you. Only with your eyes shall you look, and see the reward of the wicked. Because you have made the Lord, who is my refuge, even the Most High, your dwelling place, no evil shall befall you, nor shall any plague come near your dwelling; for He shall give His angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways."

I will strengthen you, yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.' Behold, all those who were incensed against you shall be ashamed and disgraced; they shall be as nothing, and those who strive with you shall perish. You shall seek them and not find them those who contended with you. Those who war against you shall be as nothing, as a nonexistent thing. For I, the Lord your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, 'Fear not, I will help you.'"

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; my cup runs over. But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven and tossed by the wind."

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

I usually write a section about myself as the author of the booklet. But this is not about me. It is freely available, and I will distribute it as widely as possible.

You are welcome to forward and copy it, and even modify the content as you see fit.

I also want to encourage you to regularly thank your spouse for the time they allow us to dedicate to the work of God. It is a price that the family pays. Know that God richly blesses the work of your hands.

Remember the words of Jesus:

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me,

Because He has anointed Me

To preach the gospel to the poor;

He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,

To proclaim liberty to the captives

And recovery of sight to the blind,

To set at liberty those who are oppressed;

To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."

(Luke 4:18-19, NKJV)
